

Please do not reinstate the telemarketing clearance because we have elderly parents that need to be able to call without the phone line being tied up up to 12 times a night . Now they can call without fear of not getting thrue due to telemarketers tying up the lines which eases our peace of mind .